

First Major Granville C. Heller
Road to Oak Harbor, Crescent Harbor,
Whidby Island, Washington.

HABS No. WASH-130

HABS
WASH
15-OAKHA.V,
3-

PHOTOGRAPHS
WRITTEN HISTORICAL AND DESCRIPTIVE DATA
District of Washington

Historic American Buildings Survey
Louis Baeder, District Officer
1615 Smith Tower, Seattle, Washington.

HABS
WASH.
15-01884-1
3-FIRST MAJOR GRANVILLE O. HALLER HOUSERoad to Oak HarborCrescent Harbor, Whidby Island, WashingtonOWNER:- Harry B. SpencerDATE OF ERECTION:- 1850-60BUILDER:- Major Granville O. HallerPRESENT CONDITION:- FairNUMBER OF STORIES:- Two storiesMATERIAL OF CONSTRUCTION:- Frame building, siding with corner boards, inside chimney.OTHER EXISTING RECORDS:- This is the first house built by Mr. Haller on Whidby Island. He was a Major in the army, and figured prominently in the Indian wars of the state. He also built the first general store in Coupeville, which became the trading center for a wide area.PHOTOGRAPHED:- September, 1936.Author: Louis BaederLouis Baeder
District Officer, WPA.

RW 8/30/37